

Who will sail to Wieringen Island ?

Tekst: L. Willink/ W.H.A. van Steensel van der Aa

Ook 'Wie wil mee naar Wieringen varen?'

Muziek: W.H.A. van Steensel van der Aa

Bewerking: Kees Vlak

$\bullet = 100$
Vlot (in 2)

I Zang

II

mf Wroem, wroem, wroem, wroem,

Piano

mf

1

Who will sail to Wie-rin-gen is-land on the ear-ly mor-ning tide? With a young girl so wroem, wroem, wroem, wroem. with a young girl, ...

D A7

2

ten-der and shy and going to be a Wie-rin-gen bride. See the col-oured vanes wa ving slight-ly, lis-ten to the cocks crow-ing bright-ly. Gol-den sun-shine all a-round and our hearts are Wroem, wroem, wroem; are

A7 D D A E7 A D A7 D

17

D D A7

1, 2 3
Wie-rin-gen bound ! Wie-rin-gen Is-land ! Now our hearts are Wie-rin-gen bound !
Wie-rin-gen bound !

A7 D A7 D D A7 D

Couplet 2

Girlie, don't fear leaving the lowland, sailing on the Zuyder Sea !
Soon you'll be on Wieringen Island,
for the winds are setting us free.
Flowers bloom there in summer's ardour
and your folks will crowd the harbour;
golden sunshine all around.
And our hearts are Wieringen bound;
and our hearts are Wieringen bound !

Couplet 3

Home again, where mother is waiting,
whilst your sisters scan the coast.
Ev'ryone knows a couple is mating;
and the skippers bring out a toast.
Wieringen, set your bells a-ringing to the tune the winds are singing !
Golden sunshine all around.
Now we'll sail to Wieringen Island !
Now our hearts are Wieringen bound !

Bronnen:

* B.W.E. Veurman, 'Adelijn, bruin maagdelyk...', Hoorn 1966.

In een van de komende delen van het 'Groot Liedboek' wordt nog een andere, Nederlandstalige versie van dit lied in Bes majeur opgenomen.